Professor C. M. Priest,
10 Nassau Street,
Princeton, N.J.

Dear Professor Priest:

One of our Lecturers in German has taken ill and we are looking for a substitute. Can you recommend any young man who would come to us for the winter, staying with us until the end of May? We could offer him $1200. He would need to take up his duties at once.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Professor G. M. Priest,
Lessingstrasse 19<sup>dt</sup>
Berlin, Germany.

Dear Professor Priest:

Many thanks for your letter suggesting Mr. D.E. Gilmore as a possible man for our vacancy in the Department of German. It was very kind of you to go to the trouble to write me from Germany about him and I desire to express to you my appreciation of your services. I am glad to say, however, that we succeeded in filling our positions about the middle of October. We got an exchange teacher from Berlin, who is doing excellent work for us, and we secured a German from Chicago who had also some experience in American Universities. Both of these gentlemen are likely to serve us very well during the coming winter. Again thanking you,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
